3. How well do you take instruction and how will you react when you disagree with the trip leaders? _____

Initial Your Acceptance of the Following:

- a. _____ I understand the published trip itinerary may need to be modified on a daily basis to meet the changing circumstances on the ground.
- b. _____ I understand in-country ground transportation may not be as reliable as I am used to in the U.S.
- c. _____ I understand the roads can be anything from uneven dirt, gravel and rocks to poorly graded asphalt with numerous small to large pot holes and major ruts and speed bumps.
- d. _____ I understand bathroom facilities can be as limited as a bush, or a hole in the ground or concrete pad.
- e. _____ I understand there could be several days where I won't be able to take a bath or shower and that the water could be cold and of minimal volume.
- f. _____ I understand I may need to wash my own clothing because laundry services are not available.
- g. _____ I understand all the water I use to drink or brush my teeth must be assumed to be contaminated unless it comes from a known, safe source.
- h. _____ I understand that I need to take reasonable precautions to protect myself from mosquito bites by using anti-malarials, insect repellent, covering exposed skin, limiting my exposure to the outdoors during the evenings and at night, and sleeping under mosquito netting when provided.
- i. _____ I understand I am responsible for any money and valuables I bring from the U.S. or any acquired while in-country.
- j. _____ I understand I may not agree with all the decisions made by the trip leaders, but agree to abide by their decisions unless it might compromise my Christian walk, my personal safety or the safety of fellow trip members.
- k. _____ I understand I will always have the opportunity to ask questions to seek reasonable explanations for the decisions made by the trip leaders but at the timing discretion of the trip leaders.

I certify ALL the above information is correct to the best of my knowledge.
